Relax. Your cover's in good hands

Often a 'one size fits all' approach simply isn't enough. We understand that your policy should be tailored and unique; a personal solution to reflect your lifestyle and priorities.

Our aim is to create long term relationships based on first class service. Understanding individuals' requirements and providing the most appropriate and cost effective policies. We appreciate that your home is your castle, and we will go above and beyond to make sure that your most valuable assets are accurately covered.

Life is to be enjoyed, so leave the management of your cover to us. After all, this is what we do.

So when everything's in place, you can simply enjoy total peace of mind.

Bespoke service is our jewel in the crown

Although eye-catching online offers can often seem tempting at first glance, in the long run they rarely offer the right level or type of cover you need. Our customised solutions are carefully designed to fit your individual needs and represent genuine value for money.

We provide a personal service that reflects your needs. With this in mind your dedicated account handler will manage your interests every step of the way, including a visit to your home if required. For example you may not realise the true value of your assets. We have established relationships with leading insurers and specialists; including Valuers, Restorers and Security consultants, giving you the benefit of expert advice and access to high quality professional services.

Insurance policies can be awash with jargon and complicated legal language. We will take the time to explain all documentation, making the process clear and concise. With refreshingly independent access to a multitude of proven underwriters, our Private Client team specialises in arranging and administering policies which fit your lifestyle - all at a premium which fairly reflects your home, its contents and your claims' history.

A timely reminder when making a claim

At Russell Scanlan, we believe in building lasting relationships with all of our clients. Working in partnership, we will guide you every stage throughout the process with our knowledgeable background and sector expertise.

Our specialist account handlers are on hand to offer help and advice on making sure your home is covered correctly. All of which ensures you have total peace of mind, knowing that if a claim is made, we have the specialist knowledge to assist when you need it most. To keep you informed and, most importantly, to ensure that claims are settled quickly, fairly and effectively.

What cannot be denied is how vital it is to have the correct cover in place and to make sure you aren't underinsured. It isn't until you make a claim that you realise you may not be adequately covered for the true value of your assets' worth. We not only safeguard against this, but also make sure that, if you are to make a claim, it is dealt with in a stress-free manner.

We pride ourselves on making all aspects of the process straightforward, ensuring your claim is treated with the urgency it deserves.

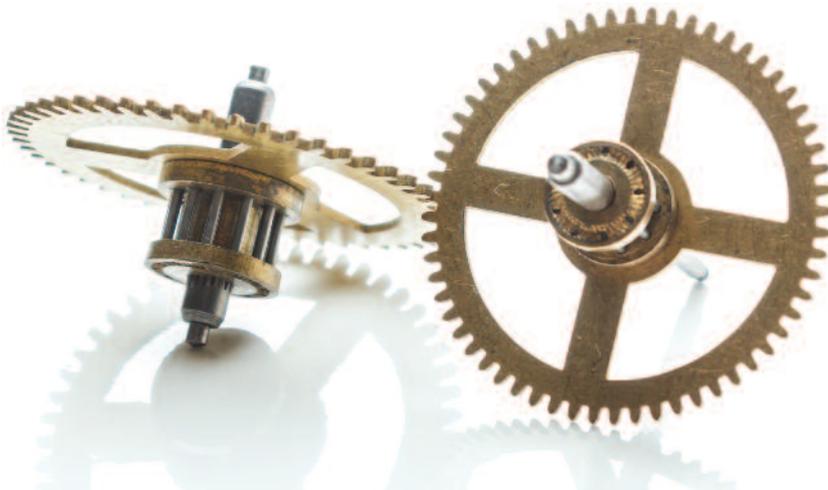

Time is life's most precious commodity. We won't waste a second of yours

In everything we do, we respect that your time is precious. So, everything we do is efficient, concise and accurate.

What's more, our dedicated Private Client team's expertise extends to arrange cover to meet all of your additional needs including:

- Holiday and Second Homes
- Overseas Property
- Motor, including family fleets
- Collectors and high value vehicles
- Travel Insurance
- Helicopters
- Event Insurance

It's good to talk

We are happy to discuss your private insurance in total confidence. After all, the better we understand your lifestyle, the more effectively we can help you maintain it.
